ESSAY QUESTIONS

Please type BOTH essays on a separate document (at least 300 words each). First off, don't be nervous when you hear the phrase "essay question". We want to learn more about who you are. The essays help us enormously to identify with the candidates and help you to stand out.

As Michelle always said, "Life is too short to be anything but happy." We are truly looking for people who embody her personality and passion for the things they loved. But we also know that life isn't always perfect and we want to hear from you on how you were able to deal with life's struggles.

This brings us to the first question:

1. Michelle Farnsworth was taken from this world too soon but she had such a passion for life. She was amazing in multiple sports, loved traveling the world, baked the most fun cakes, and was a great artist. She always lived each day to the fullest, even when she was sick you would find her drawing or planning a get together with friends. Her future goals were to go into the world of home/fashion design and Real Estate, she loved those HGTV shows. What are your passions/goals in life? How are you going to integrate these passions/goals into your collegiate life/future?

2. Michelle faced a challenge that no other teenager should have to face. She faced it with poise, positivity, and laughter. Of course, there were many moments that tested her but she fought hard with the belief that she could win. We always felt this quote embodied Michelle: "When something bad happens, you have three choices. You can let it define you, let it destroy you, or let it strengthen you". She let it strengthen her. What is one of the biggest challenges you have faced and how did you deal with it? How has it affected your outlook on life? Would you do anything different in hindsight? (It doesn't have to be something as major as Michelle's but everyone is faced with challenges every day and therefore have to make tough decisions).

3. Fun Question for our Nashoba Applicants: Michelle loved Classics after a FH game....What is your favorite food at Classics?
